Justice-OVW Sexual Assault Demonstration Initiative	education Nonprofits that do not have a 501(c)(3) status with the IRS, other than institutions of higher education. The Sexual Assault Demonstration Initiative is OVW’s first large-scale project to determine best practices and needed action in reaching more sexual assault survivors and providing comprehensive sexual assault services. A strength-based self-assessment of applicant agencies will be used to help selected demonstration sites develop an action plan to: 1) increase outreach to those populations most likely experiencing sexual assault in their communities, but not currently accessing services; 2) develop models of service provision that prioritize the needs of sexual assault survivors beyond immediate crisis responses currently offered; and 3) assess the efficacy of those steps in increasing the numbers and types of sexual assault survivors who access those newly enhanced services.		2010
Small Business Administration	This Act specifically encourages small business development centers to enhance their current level of export assistance and expertise. This funding is provided to SBDCs with a primary objective of supporting job creation and retention within the small business community through impactful SBDC individualized, in-depth, business advising of entrepreneurs and small business owners. SBDCs should use this funding to demonstrate increased innovation in areas such as: delivery of their services; serving new or additional markets not otherwise covered; and programs that will create the next generation of entrepreneurs. Potential projects might include: improving the level of international trade assistance offered; collaboration in incubators; collaboration in regional innovation economies; enhancing SBIR services; growing micro businesses; apprenticeship to entrepreneurship programs; and assisting spin-off businesses that bring university research to the marketplace along with other technological and innovative ventures. The SBDC program is the SBA’s largest matching grant-funded service delivery network providing high quality business and economic development assistance to small businesses and nascent entrepreneurs in order to promote growth, expansion, innovation, increased productivity and management improvement	Nov. 4, 2010	December 30, 2010

Every Federal dollar invested is matched with private funds, and all programs are rigorously evaluated. As a result, the most effective approaches can be expanded to reach more people in need and key lessons can be captured and broadly shared. In FY 2011, CNCS will award a limited number of Social Innovation Fund grants to outstanding grantmaking institutions, referred to in this Notice as “intermediaries.” These intermediaries will match every Federal dollar of the grant award in cash. They will then identify and invest at least 80% of their federal funds (plus identified cash matching funds) in portfolios of promising community-based nonprofit organizations (subgrantees) working in low-income communities in one or more of the following issue areas: • Youth Development – Preparing America’s youth for success in school, active citizenship, productive work, and healthy and safe lives. • Economic Opportunity – Increasing economic opportunities for economically disadvantaged individuals. • Healthy Futures – Promoting healthy lifestyles and reducing the risk factors that can lead to illness. http://www07.grants.gov/search/search.do;jsessionid=LvwTNnJcVkJcYYxP19T5CXvf dJQTJmdMTH71KnJcGhjtsDmKzpk!-265442666?oppId=75173&mode=VIEW
Department of Labor- Solicitation for Grant Applications (SGA) for Serving Juvenile Offenders in High-Poverty, High-Crime Communities	The U.S. Department of Labor (DOL), Employment and Training Administration (ETA), announces the availability of approximately $17 million in grant funds authorized by the Workforce Investment Act for two grants to serve juvenile offenders, ages 16 to 24, in high-poverty, high-crime communities. The purpose of these grants is to improve the long-term labor market prospects of these youth. These grants will be awarded through a competitive process open to organizations with the capacity to implement multi-site, multi-state projects. The Department expects to award two grants of $8.5 million each to cover a planning period and up to 26 months of operation.	February 28th, 2011	April 12th, 2011
Department of Health and Human Services-Assets to Independence Program	Primary feature of each AFI project is that project participants are given access to special matched savings accounts called Individual Development Accounts (IDA). Participants open an IDA and save earned income in the account regularly with the goal of accumulating savings to acquire an economic asset that will appreciate over time -- specifically, to purchase a home, capitalize or expand a business for self-employment, or attend higher education or training. Grantees also ensure that participants have access to financial literacy education and coaching such as training on money management and consumer issues.	February 28th, 2011	03/31/2011 and 5/25/2011
